

BIG ENTRY LIST FOR THE SUBURBAN.

Number of Nominations Received Exceeds All Expectations.

Western Owners Intend to Put in a Strong Bid for the Great Prize.

Four-Year-Olds Make a Splendid Showing Among the Forty-three Horses Named.

OTHER STAKES HAVE FILLED WELL.

Six Race Three-Year-Olds Are in the Big Handicap, including the Futurity Winner Ogden, and That Fast Colt, Typhoon II.

To judge from the entries that the Coney Island Jockey Club has so far received for its stakes that closed January 4, racing affairs are going to boom this year. It was long odds that the Suburban would not get over thirty-five entries at the outside, and any price that the number would not run over forty. Yet at 8 o'clock yesterday forty-three horses had been entered, with the possibility of more names coming in from California and the far West. The other events have filled in an equally satisfactory manner. The Futurity of 1896 has had 723 names nominated.

The entries in the Suburban are as follows:

The Suburban, a handicap for three-year-olds and upward, of $50 each, or only $10 if struck out by February 20. Starters to pay $100 additional. The winner to receive $5,000, the second horse $1,000 and the third horse $500. Weights to be nominated February 1. Winning post mile. One mile and a quarter.

The Foster Brothers, with Dr. Rice, Dr. Ina and Count Tenor, Mr. George B. Smith ("Pittsburg Phil"), with Belmont, Howard Mann and The Winner, and Dr. E. F. McLean, of Cincinnati, with Berclair, Rockwood and Loli, are the biggest nominators.

Half a dozen three-year-olds are nominated, which in view of the lack of class among the older horses, is a smaller number than might have been expected. Still, so far as they are concerned, Ogden, Typhoon II. and Algot were named the very best of their year. Mr. Macdonough's entry of Orestes may be merely of a complimentary nature, but on the other hand the son of Ormonde may have some on this winter, and so promise to be all that was at one time hoped. The cream of the lot are, however, the four-year-olds, that include Royal, Handspring and Hauddman. Besides such useful performers as Ben Brush, First Mate, Ben Holladay, The Winner, Peep o' Day, Howard Mann and Loli. Most of the older horses are well-known, but some are likely to puzzle even habitual racegoers. These are: Dr. Robb (J. H. McCree), b. c. 4, by Duke of Montrose, out of Twinkle; Frank Harris (J. G. Ferguson), b. c. 4, by Uncas, out of Bibolette, and Blazerock (M. Murphy), b. c. 4, by St. Blaise, out of Shamrock. Present owners of other horses are: Mingo II. (H. P. Waller), Meadowthorpe (John W. Schorr & Son), Arbuckle (E. W. Heffner), and Algot (W. W. Darden & Co.).

While, of course, the absence of formidable individuals accounts to some extent for the heavy entry, there is much that is satisfactory about it. The West is unusually well represented with the nominations already named of Foster Brothers, Gastin & Larrabee, Dr. E. F. McLean, a newcomer in these parts, and Mr. Macdonough, as well as Buck Massie, Halma, Semper Ego and Algot.

MARRIED BY LONG DELAYS.

Starter Cassidy May Resign If He Doesn't Receive Help from Barksdale Officials.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 6.—Backers of long shots had another inking at Barksdale today, but, as yesterday, the surprises failed to bring any great benefit to the ring, for, with the exception of Kirkover, who ran practically unbacked, the winners all had a following.

The day's sport was seriously marred by long delays at the post. The riders seemed to do everything in their power to harass the starter in his work. While this state of affairs exists the starter cannot possibly do good work. Perhaps if he were given free power to punish boys himself, without consulting the officials, the desired result might be obtained.

Another thing that would aid him would be to instruct his assistants to do away with the whips which they carry. They use them with a recklessness that makes them useless, for it drives horses frantic and compels the jockeys to keep on the more to dodge the lash. It is rumored tonight that if Starter Cassidy does not get more co-operation from the officials he will resign.
